REPORT NO. 25X1X6

- a. Syrian syndicates are now meeting to determine "ways and means" for a general uprising. For unspecified reasons, source believes that 10 December is the target date.
- b. At a Communist Party meeting on 28 November, the largest since the banning of the Party in Syria, Communists discussed a plan for supporting anti-government movements, especially those of the syndicates.
- c. Ashir Fellaha, the leader of the Semani Quarter of Damascus, told source that quarter leaders were already prepared for concerted mob action in Damascus.
- d. Sami Khabarah, Damascus deputy and editor of the newspaper al-Nidal, told source that Constitutionalist Party leaders, including Nazim Kudsi, Aleppo deputy, had promised syndicate leaders that they would do nothing to oppose anti-government demonstrations, and would offer "moral support" to the demonstrators.
